Visa

I have dual nationalities holding a foreign passport and the Hong Kong passport. Should I apply as a foreign student or a Chinese student?

If you plan to enter China with your HK travel document please apply as a Chinese student. If you apply with your foreign passport, then you will need to enter China with your foreign passport and the X2 visa.

I have dual nationalities holding a foreign passport and the Chinese Travel Document. Should I apply as a foreign student or a Chinese student?

If you plan to enter China with your Chinese travel document please apply as a Chinese student. If you apply with your foreign passport, then you will need to enter China with your foreign passport and the X2 visa.

Who needs to apply for a visa to enter China's mainland?

Students who are non-Chinese citizens should apply for the X2 student visa to enter China's mainland to attend FISS.

For students who have dual nationality, please make sure you enter China and register on campus with the same ID document you submitted for your FISS application.

For students who are citizens of HK, Macau and Taiwan holding a non-Chinese nationality at the same time, please make sure you enter China with the ID document used in your FISS application. If you used your non-Chinese passport to apply for FISS, then you will need to apply for X2 visa and enter China's mainland with your foreign passport and X2 visa.

As a non-Chinese applicant, when will I get my admission and visa documents?

An admission notice will be sent to you in about 5 working days by email after your application. The official admission letter and visa application documents will be emailed to you after the confirmation of Fudan's International Students Office. This may take about 1-3 weeks.

Please note that you don't need the original hard copy admission letter to apply for the X2 visa. However, if you do need the original copy, please email us at iss@fudan.edu.cn. The letter will be sent to you via regular mail. It may take 2 weeks to be delivered.

You're also welcome to pick up the original admission letter after you're here at Fudan at the program office.

We suggest you apply as early as possible if you need an X2 student visa to enter China's mainland.

Do I need a physical examination if I apply for the X2 visa?

The summer session is a one-month program and so a physical examination or the blood test is NOT required to apply for the student visa with the admission documents.

The admission notice says I should bring 8 photos to Fudan. Do I have to do this? Can I have passport photos taken on campus for the visa extension?

What the admission notice says about photos applies to long-term students. Since FISS is a short-term program, you do NOT have to bring 8 photos.

Two photos should be fine. If you don't have any, you can take photos at the photo booth close to the university entrance at Guoshun Rd., or at photo booths in Shanghai metro stations.

If I already have a valid visa to enter the Chinese mainland, do I still need to apply for the X2 visa?

We will issue X2 visa application documents to you once you're admitted. Please consult the Chinese Embassy or Consulates in your country about this.

Courses and Transcript

When will classes start?

Classes will start on July 8 and end on August 2.

What time do classes start every day?

Please refer to our program website for course schedule

https://iss.fudan.edu.cn/Courses/Course\_List.htm, and program schedule

<https://iss.fudan.edu.cn/Courses/Agenda.htm>.

Please note that the schedule in the course enrollment system is not 100% correct as it lists the teaching schedule of regular semesters and can't be changed to the summer session schedule.

What is the attendance policy?

Please note that three unexcused absences in a course will lead to an automatic failure (F as your final grade). If you are 15 minutes late for a class without prior permission, it will be considered as an unexcused absence. Unexcused absence means that you do not show up in a class without any prior notification. Therefore, please ask for permission from the course instructor if you have to miss a class for a good reason.

Please consult your course instructor about whether and how permitted absences will affect your final grade. However, you are not allowed to be absent for more than one-third of the whole course (both unexcused and permitted included). Otherwise, you're not qualified to take part in the final exam.

For online courses, all students are required to turn on the camera and show their faces throughout each session. If not, it will be considered absence.

In addition, each instructor also has his/her own attendance policy. They will talk about course requirements and policies in the first class. Please take good note of them.

Where will our classrooms be?

You may have classes at different lecture buildings on the Handan campus. Most courses will be at Lecture Building 6. Ask us if you don't know where a classroom is.

When can I get the program certificate and course transcript?

The hard-copy certificate will be sent in early September.

The e-transcript can be downloaded from Fudan's system until your Fudan student number is expired which is usually in the end of August 2024. You can request the system to send the e-transcript to any emails you want, 10 copies per day.

If you need hard-copy transcripts, please directly contact the Undergraduate Academic Service Center of Fudan at bksfwzx@fudan.edu.cn, or +86 21 55665205. for the activities that you are interested in in the link posted in the announcement.

Do I need to pay for the activities?

The one-day trip to Zhouzhuang Water Town is free for Shanghai Summer School Scholarship students, but not for all the other students.

All other activities, such as Huangpu River cruise, acrobatic show, Chinese painting, Chinese calligraphy, etc. are for free for all students.

How can I pay for the one-day trip to other city?

You will directly pay the travel agent on July 5, the registration day, in cash, with Wechat pay or Alipay.

Can I still go?

Sure. You can pay before the deadline at the travel agency's office.

I paid for the one-day trip. But I don't want to go now. What should I do?

Please pay attention to the refund deadline on the receipt given by the travel agency. No refund will be processed after the deadline.

I have signed up for one free activity but I don't want to go anymore. Should I do something?

Yes. If you sign up and don't show up, it will be a big waste of resources. So please do cancel your sign-up with us before the deadline. For some activities, there are people on the waiting list, and so your withdrawal can give these people the opportunity to attend.

There is an activity that I really want to attend. But it's quite late when I want to sign up for it. Can I still attend even if there are no slots available?

In that case please put yourself on the waiting list. From past experience every time there are people failing to show up despite the sign-up. When this happens people on the waiting list will be able to attend, in the order of when you waitlist.

WeChat

What is the WeChat group for?

WeChat is a daily must in China. It is not just a chat APP, but also a useful tool for purchases or various services.

A group chat will be set up during the summer session to communicate in a fast and efficient way, and also to connect with the peers, TAs and buddies. Announcements will be posted in WeChat, eLearning, FISS website as well as to your email. When you see useful information posted on WeChat, you can “Add to Favorites” so that you can retrieve it later.

How do I set up my WeChat account?

Please download the app and register according to the instructions. Our advice is you set a password you will be able to remember when registering your WeChat account and link your WeChat account to your email.

You are highly recommended to download WeChat and create an account at your home country before your departure since lots of students can hardly get the verification code sent via phone message if you

No, but we usually have hundreds of students participate in the farewell party. Shows are welcome. Please let your TA know if you wish to contribute during the farewell, so we can make arrangements.

What document do I need to prepare if I plan to travel outside Shanghai?

You should take your passport (or Chinese ID card) with you. Train ticket purchasing and hotel check-in do require your valid ID.

If I feel sick, where can I see a doctor?

There is an on-campus clinic at Building No. 5 (复旦大学校医院 5 号楼) where simple treatments are provided.

If the doctor at the university clinic thinks it is serious, he/she will advise you to go to a big hospital. If you have communication problems at the clinic, you can ask a buddy to go with you.

It is important to have a list of local hospitals approved by your insurer on hand. If you get sick, you may want to go to a private hospital whose staff speaks English rather than a public hospital that locals usually go to, like United Family Healthcare in Shanghai, which is more expensive than public hospitals. Therefore, it would be great if your insurance covers visits to private hospitals such as United Family Healthcare.

I am a Shanghai Summer School scholarship student and I know the scholarship includes local insurance. Does it mean I can visit the on-campus clinic without paying out of my pocket?

The insurance we purchase for you contains a deductible of around 700 yuan when it comes to medical costs. For any claim you will need to keep the medical record and receipts issued by the hospital you visit.

Where can I study other than the dorm and lecture rooms?

Fudan University Liberal Library and the café area on the second floor of School of Economics are good options to escape from the hot summer. North Canteen is also a good place to go except during peak dining hours.

Can I borrow books from the Liberal library?

No. Students have the access to enter the Fudan Liberal library. Short-term non-degree students can only read in the reference rooms, and can't borrow books from the library.

How can I get a taxi?

It would be a good idea to download the Didi app for taxi booking and payments. You can pay with WeChat Pay or Alipay.

Is there any place where I can store my luggage during my travel after the session ends?

Not on campus. There is a Storhub 趣存自助仓 close to our campus, which has no affiliation with Fudan University, at 1581 Changyang Rd., Yangpu District. Call at +86 21 5513 8960.

What are the emergency phone numbers?
